MERCY HOUSE'S SIXTH ANNUAL FUNDRAISING GALA "LIVING WITH HEART" CELEBRATES 20 YEARS OF SERVICE

Organization to recognize corporate honoree Experian® and House of Blues® as community honoree

SANTA ANA, Calif. Apr. 30, 2010 – Mercy House, one of Southern California's premier advocates of the homeless, providing a unique system of dignified housing alternatives, programs, and supportive services, today announced that its sixth annual fundraising gala, "Living with Heart," will be held at Disney's Grand California Hotel on Saturday, May 15, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.

This year, Mercy House is very pleased to announce that it has selected Experian as its corporate honoree and House of Blues Anaheim as its community honoree. In addition, the agency will be giving special recognition to its first employee, Executive Director Larry Haynes, for 20 years of leadership.

"Experian is dedicated to making an important difference in each of the communities in which we work and live. Our relationship with Mercy House highlights this community commitment, and we are honored to receive this year's Corporate Honoree Award," said Heather McLaughlin, vice president of Public Affairs for Experian. "Experian volunteers continually support Mercy House through its Cold Weather Shelter program, and our Public Education team is working to launch a series of credit education workshops for integration into the Mercy House Life Skills curriculum. We look forward to continuing our positive relationship with Mercy House for many years to come."

"House of Blues is known nationally for its community involvement on a national and local level," said Todd Miller, talent buyer for House of Blues. "On a national level, we champion efforts to keep arts and music in the schools. On a local level, we support important local charities and are always ready to jump in to help local musicians in need. In support of this year's gala, House of Blues will host an evening at our Downtown Disney location, featuring a name band, and we will handle all of the promotion and ticket sales to benefit of the clients and programs of Mercy House."

"I would especially like to acknowledge all of our gracious sponsors including Riviera magazine," said Larry Haynes. "Their kind generosity significantly helps offset the costs associated with hosting the event, allowing us to apply the funds we raise directly to the programs and services that benefit our clients. Please join us on May 15 to for a spectacular evening!" A list of sponsors follows the press release.

The theme for this year's gala is "Together We Shine." The theme for the event will be supported by an original song performed by a "super group" of Southern California musicians at the beginning of the program. In addition, an original art piece, "Together We Shine," was created by Los Angeles-based artist Brooke Reidt, and will be featured in the live auction. Renderings of the "Together We Shine" heart have been featured on the sponsorship brochure, invitations and website, and will also serve as the focal point of the event's décor.

Ellis Hall, a multi-instrumentalist virtuoso and dynamic vocalist, will provide entertainment for the evening. Protégé to Ray Charles, he has performed and recorded with a literal who's who of musical elite. The guests will also rock to the music of this year's runner up of KTLA's Battle of the Bands, "Adam's Attic." Comedian Tim Shaw will serve as master of ceremonies.

Co-chairs for Mercy House's sixth annual Living With Heart Gala are board member Kathleen A. Janson, Joseph N. Aldrich and Cara Stewart.
